for Home Occupations

INFORMATION FOR HOME OCCUPATIONSPlease read and check the acknowledgement box if your business will be operated out of your private residence within the City of Longmont

You will be responsible for ensuring that your business meets the following criteria for home occupations

Section 15.10.020 # 153 defines a Home Occupation, it states: "Home Occupation means an accessory use of a dwelling unit (or of and accessory structure allowed on a residential lot) for gainful employment of the residents of the dwelling unit, which use does not change the essential residential character or appearance of the dwelling unit."

Longmont Municipal; Code Section 15.04.030.C.4 states:

It is the intent of this subsection to regulate home occupations so that the average neighborhood resident, under normal circumstances, will not be negatively impacted by and will be minimally aware of their existence. Home occupations must meet all of the following criteria:

- a. Home Occupations shall be conducted entirely within the principal structure or an accessory structure associated with the residential use, and shall be carried on by at least one resident of the principal dwelling as well as no more than one additional non-resident.
- b. Home Occupations shall be clearly incidental and secondary to the use of the dwelling for dwelling purposes and shall not change the residential character of the property.
- c. Size for home occupation:
 - i. For home occupations not servicing the public at the location, the total area used for the home occupation shall not exceed an area representing one-half (50 percent) of the gross floor area of the principal dwelling unit.
 - ii. For home occupations engaged in serving the public at the location, the total area used for the home occupation shall not exceed an area representing 15 percent of the gross floor area of the principal dwelling unit unless the area of the home occupation is a live/work unit as defined in the building code as adopted by the City of Longmont.
- d. There shall be no advertising of other display or indications of a home occupation, with the exception of signage permitted for home occupations per chapter 15.06 (Signs), of this development code.
- e. There shall be no substantial retailing or wholesaling of stocks, supplies, or products conducted on the premises of a home occupation; however, delivery of retail products to the consumer off the premises, such as in the course of a mail order business, shall be permitted.
- f. There shall be no exterior storage on the premises of supplies of material used in the home occupation. nor of any chemically hazardous, explosive, or combustible material within the dwelling or upon the exterior of the property.
- g. A home occupation shall provide additional off-street parking area adequate to accommodate all needs created by the home occupation, without changing the residential character of the premises.
- h. A home occupation shall not generate or result in nuisances such as traffic, on-street parking, noise, vibration, odor, glare, fumes, electrical interference, or hazards greater than that usually associated with residential uses.

By checking this box, I acknowledge that I have read and understand the ordinance stated above agree to abide by it under penalty of law and to notify the City of any changes in this home occupation. I understand that this application is intended to inform applicants of the regulations and in no way legitimizes any use that does not strictly conform to the provisions of the ordinance as stated above.

Please continue to the signature section of the application. Information for building, zoning and fire is not necessary for a business operated out of a private residence.
